

Minutes
AELE Executive Board Meeting
March 2, 2021

The Executive Board Meeting of the Americans for Effective Law Enforcement, Inc. (hereinafter "Board") was held on Tuesday, March 2, 2021, at 12:00 pm CST telephonically.

The following Directors were present and participated in the meeting: President Chet Epperson, Vice President/Secretary Al Youngs, Executive Director John Peters, and Director Charles Gruber.

The members present feel that our Executive Director John Peters continues to do an excellent job working diligently during these pandemic/social unrest times to bring about the best for AELE.

The Board along with President Epperson discussed the following topics during their meeting:

- Pricing – On March 2, 2021, President Chet Epperson proposed a tuition price change for future AELE seminars to help law enforcement leaders and managers access the latest "force" information given anticipated budget challenges. The proposal was seconded by Vice President/Secretary Al Youngs and members of the AELE Executive Board approved the changes. Effective immediately, for only upcoming AELE seminars in 2021 and 2022. Tuition for "Live" attendance in Las Vegas, NV is now $950 per person, and for ON-DEMAND attendance, $795. An additional tuition discount of $100 will be given to those who have earned the CLS designation
- Monthly Publication – John Peters is working to develop a monthly digital journal sponsored by AELE. More to follow.
- Certified Litigation Specialist – Executive Director John Peters and members of the Executive Board are working to re-energize the Certified Litigation Specialist and Expert Witness Programs. New rules are being adopted. More to follow.
- By-Laws Update – Jack Pecoraro, Treasurer, was unable to attend the meeting and in the past he had indicated that he would be calling for a meeting in April 2021.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:45 pm CST.

Respectfully submitted,

Chet Epperson
President

Al Youngs
Vice President/Secretary